FUSSBENDER

Live Music

Gek dat ik eerst moest stoppen met mijn muziekwinkel (Dolly Dagger in de Boelare in Eeklo, 2017 nvdr) om met mijn eigen songs naar buiten te kunnen treden", vertelt gitarist Sven Bauwens. Samen met bassist Bart Soens (The Sloofs, Telefoenk, Waldorf) en topdrummer Bruno Meeus (Wizards of Ooze, Zap Mama...) vormt Sven nu de band Fuss Bender. Drie mannen op een podium die zeer puur én in de traditie van Jimi Hendrix met veel energie willen begeisteren.

NICK DITTMEIER
& THE SAWDUSTERS

Live Music

Nick Dittmeier & the Sawdusters are a four piece Americana band from Louisville, KY. They've released two EPs, "Extra Better" in 2013 and then "Light of Day" in 2014. Through relentless touring, they've become mainstays of the Midwest Americana scene. In September of 2015, they set ten highway-tested, fine-tuned songs loose in the confines of LA LA Land Studios. The result is "Midwest Heart/Southern Blues", which was released in January of 2016. The new album is a gritty, upbeat collection of songs, full of characters who were developed while staring over the dash of a beat up Ford van cruising through towns in the South and Midwest, whose better days are behind them.
